

CPT208 Human-Centric Computing

12. Revision

Dr Yue Li and Dr Teng Ma

CPT208 exam

- 8th June (Monday)
- 10:00-12:00 (2 hours)
- GYM-Lobby-South Campus-SIP
- Any issues, contact module leader/examiner immediately.

CPT208 exam format

- It will be an OPEN-BOOK exam.
- You are allowed to take one-page notes with you.
 - Up to A4 size.
 - You may write on both sides.

Preparing for OPEN-BOOK exams

- Open-book does NOT mean no preparation.
 - It does mean different preparation.
- Different types of questions to a standard (closed-book) exam.
 - Not harder, or easier, just different.
 - Typically, more open-ended: essay-type questions; “discuss; justify; explain; give example” rather than merely “what”.
- Revise the key topics, with a focus on understanding rather than memory-learning.

Preparing the one-page notes

- You may not cover all lecture content in the notes, use it wisely.
 - Check something you're unsure about: should it be A or B?
 - What is the correct English term/phrase to employ?
 - Complement your answer: quick scan to make sure you haven't forgotten anything important.
 - NOT for writing the full answers.

Writing your answers

- Try to be precise, and concise; read the marks to gauge the numbers of words to write and the time to spend.
- Don't copy directly from the lecture slides.
- Use the correct (English) terminology.
- Examples, kept relevant, can be useful to illustrate a particular point or argument (this is how you make your answers “specific”).

Instructions to Candidates

1. This is an open-book examination with invigilation. You are allowed to take one-page notes with you. Please complete the assessment independently and honestly.
2. Total marks available are 100 marks. This exam consists of three questions in total. The mark allocated for each question is indicated at the end of the question.
3. Answer ALL questions. There is NO penalty for providing a wrong answer.
4. Write down your solutions on the answer booklet. Clearly indicate the question numbers before your solutions. Submit your notes together with your answer booklet.
5. Only English solutions are accepted. Make sure your writings are clear to read.
6. All materials must be returned to the exam supervisor upon completion of the exam. Failure to do so will be deemed academic misconduct and will be dealt with accordingly.
7. The duration is 2 hours.
